Chambers Oliphant, C. Fitzhugh Tallman, T. T. Belote, Allison V. Arthur, John B. Hender-son, Commander H. Bource, Dr. F. Louet and Austin H. Clark.

His highness is recuperating from the slight indisposition caused by the strenuousness of his program when he first reached Washington, but is not yet able to leave his hotel. Consequently Robert Woods Bliss, Third Assistant Secretary of State, has been obliged to recall the invitations for the dinner he was to have given tonight in honor of Prince Albert.

If he is strong enough the Prince of Monaco will visit Mount Vernon tomorrow to place a wreath upon the tomb of Washington. He will be accompanied by William Whiting Andrews, Austin H. Clark, Commander Bouree and Dr. Louet. The prince and his suite will leave Sun-day for New York, where he will stay for a time. His departure from Washington closes the official aspect of his visit to this country and after Sunday he will make a number of visits to friends in and around New York until May 12, when he sets sail for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Grosvernor gave a dinner last night, their guests being asked to meet Prince Albert of Monaco. In the company were the Russian Ambassador, Boris Bakhmeteff, and his sister, Mme. Bazadoff; Mr. and Mrs. Rob-ert Lansing, Dr. and Mrs. Alexand-er Graham Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Coville, Mr. and Mrs. Ru-dolph Kauffmann, Mr. and Mrs. Austin H. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. David Fairchild, Miss Julia Mattis, Miss Catherine Dunlop Mackenzie, Miss Nina Lunn, Miss Gertrude Grosvenor, Dr. J. Howard Gore, F. W. Baldwin, John Oliver LaGorce and Commander Bouree and Dr. Louet, of the Prince's suite.
